Love Like Gravity's Long-Awaited EP Hits the Street!

February 15, 2010 (Springdale, AR) The fans could not be happier with the recent release of Love Like Gravity's self-titled EP. It has been 17 months since the single release of the hit song "Dig" which debuted on Christian Radio Weekly's Global Rock chart at #1 and remained for 6 weeks. "Dig" was on CRW's top ten for 24 consecutive weeks.

Produced by Tony Palacios and Jim Cooper (Decypher Down, High Flight Society, Building 429), the new EP includes remixes of the two singles "Dig" and "Gravity" along with four brand new songs which are receiving great nods of approval from the fans. There is not one bad song on this new EP! Every one of these songs are hits and I can not wait to see these guys live+, exclaimed a fan in Calhoun, GA. Another fan from Kansas City, MO says, WOW!!! LLG's writing, production, and performance in this new project rivals the top Christian rock artists today. They've proven yet again that a major label is not a requirement for an exceptional album.

The original members of LLG, Dustin Woods (vox), Cale Kight (guitar), and Stan Meat+Mayo (drums), are joined by two new faces, Justin Loury (guitar) and Jeromy Marsh (bass and bgv). You can grab this new EP on iTunes or purchase the hard copy directly from LLG by visiting their myspace at <http://myspace.com/lovelikegravity>. You might as well pick up the new tunes and see what the buzz is all about.
